

BRONX WOMEN, FIFTY OF THEM, ATTEND A PARTY

Annual Ball of the Independence League of the New County.

Fifty suffragettes, representing the various Assembly and election districts throughout the Bronx, attended in a body the grand annual entertainment and ball of the Independence League of Bronx County at Hunt's Point Palace last night. The suffragettes, under the leadership of Mrs. Anna C. Holber, president of the Bronx County Women's Political Union, were the guests of the Independence Leaguers, and throughout the vaudeville bill of ten numbers they occupied a box in the most prominent section of the hall.

Besides the suffragette delegation, 5,000 people crowded the hall last night. The object of the affair was to get together and celebrate the victory of the Bronx ticket at the last election. The entertainment committee assembled ten vaudeville performers from the leading Bronx theatres. The show was well received. The honored guests of the evening were Douglas Mathewson, Borough President of the Bronx; Robert Moorehead, Superintendent of the Bronx; Thomas A. Whittle, Commissioner of Public Works of the Bronx; Municipal Justice Peter Sahel and Vincent Ganley, Clerk of the County of the Bronx. Representatives of the league from Kings, Queens, Richmond and New York counties attended in a body.

The officers of the league in the Bronx are: Arthur J. Lary, President; John Lepore, First Vice-President; James S. Leslie, Second Vice-President; James P. Rice, Treasurer; Virgil M. Adams, Secretary, and John J. Deoley, Sergeant-at-Arms. The show manager last night was Gottlieb Schaefer. His assistants were John J. Adams and Gustave W. Graul.

The Floor Committee consisted of William H. Smith, Edward Schaub, William J. Farrell, Thomas J. Dunn, August Brattler, Frederick C. Lucas, John D. Beers, Eugene Stork, A. H. Schaefer, Louis Berger, Joseph P. Murphy, Burton Anderson, John Crawford, William H. Combs, George Yohn, John Davis Jr., Chris Tivia, Henry Schuman, Virgil P. Adams, John H. Francis, P. McDonald and Milton Weiss.
